It's the end of one life.

It's the beginning of another.

It's the chance for us to expand our lives

We look into the future;
afraid of the
obstacles ahead,
but excited because
we're no longer children

What we've worked for all our lives

is finally becoming a reality.

We don't know whether to cry or cheer.

We're filled with mixed emotions,

not only about ourselves

but all the people

we've come to know.

It has taken us a lifetime to get to where we are now.

It's been hard;

it's been fun.

And if I could relive my life,

I'd do it all over again.

CJH

Faculty and Administration

We're filled with such big hopes.
We only want what's best for those who are willing to learn.
We don't know all, but what we do know we want to share.
We've been through it before, and our experiences are worth listening to.

Seniors

Just yesterday,
I walked through these doors.
Excited, nervous, curious.
Now I sit back and remember.
With each stride, I progressed,
Stepping further than ever expected.
Learning from living, laughing, and loving,
Reaching out to grasp and understand—
Life transforming around and within me . . .

I have grown, yet I am just a child in the eyes of the giant.
Today I exit through these doors for the last time,
All feelings of sadness overwhelmed by the prospects provided by the open door . . .

Leaders to success

The Senior Class Council was able to complete a successful year of activities due to the joint effort of its members. School spirit was boosted in the beginning of the year during the Almost Anything Goes Contest won by the seniors. Fund raisers such as the flea market and the car rallies benefitted the seniors further. Such success was the result of cooperation, organization, and leadership learned through four years of working together. The efforts of Mrs. Gracie and Mr. Goodson, the class advisors, were greatly appreciated by the council.

'77 rallies on

There's proof in the two car rallies that it takes a lot of work and no ONE person can do all that work. I had a good time working and driving in each of the rallies, despite some of the hassles. To next year's Senior class—leave a few months for planning!!—Jen Kimball

"Oyster Birth" and "4-way"? And where was that second check point?—C,M,M, and the '62 Impala

Half a tank of gas, $7.00, 4 hours—for what?—Christa

Take the second right after the fifth stop sign, then the first left after the five green houses, then turn right at the light . . .

Do you think you'll have room for five more?

Seniors and juniors together at last

In a small enclosure, the volume of a band is inversely proportional to their talent.—Steve Pardue

I thought that it was one of the best bands that the Sr. High has had because we didn't have to listen to top 40 and Disco all night.—Patti Moss

I loved the band! Even though we lost money it was still fun.—Cheryl Pfeiffer

A Friend Died Today

A friend died today,
But not in my heart.
In my heart he's alive;
Smiling, laughing, warm sunlight on his golden hair.

It makes me wonder—this death.
How long will he die?
When will he live again?
Will he?

But STILL he is ALIVE,
'Cause nobody, not even he,
Can kill a memory
Of warmth, of love, and of friendship.

Live on, my friend,
For to me, you shall never be dead.

With love to you, Mark,
a friend.

Underclass

We may be small but our hopes are big.
The future is getting closer and we're getting ready.
It seems so trivial now, but it's so important later.

Juniors wallow in wealth

JUNIOR CLASS OFFICERS: Pete Kerzel, Ruth Starkey, Jim Klender, Fran Parker

We laid our groundwork early in the year and it paid off. People laughed at our candle sales idea but, we made $800 off it. This year was only the beginning; I expect next year to improve 100%.—Pete Kerzel

The class of 1978 really pulled together for the fund raising activities in the beginning of the year, and later the effort paid off with a well planned Ring Dance and Prom, something that separates ours from other classes.—Jim Klender

JUNIOR CLASS ADVISORS: Betty Rubin and Richard Schultz

CHS welcomes sophomores

There were not enough representatives coming to the meetings.—Kim Cecil

Considering it was our first year, we were pleased with the results and are looking forward to better years.—Jamie Scott

We are the best class to hit CHS in 15 years and we've got two more years to go.—Chris St. Jean

I'm looking for bigger and better things next year as they approach their second year at CHS. I would encourage all members of the class of '79 to get more involved in the plans for their class.—Mr. Lynch

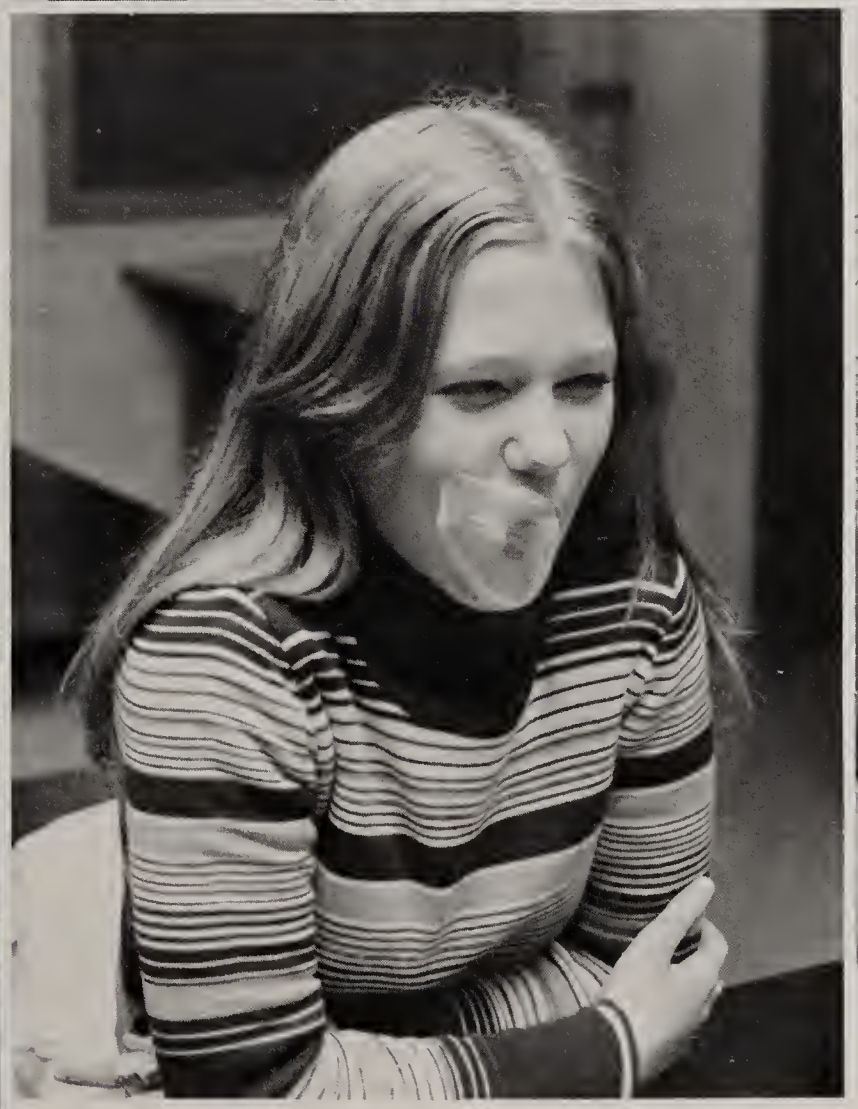
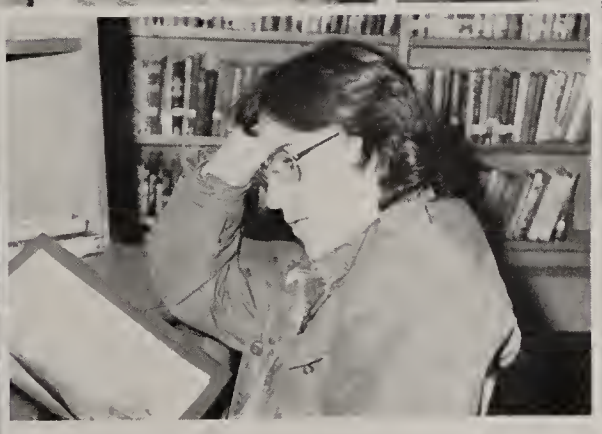
JAIL





Happenings

It is here that the things we work so hard for pay off.
Getting together with friends and classmates,
Showing our school spirit,
Just being ourselves;
That's why we come.

Prison philosophy unlocks closed minds

On December 3 & 4, CHS presented THE NIGHT THOREAU SPENT IN JAIL, a play by Jerome Laurence and Robert E. Lee. Attendance was minimal, but the performance was excellent.

"Thoreau's a fascinating
paradox:
A man who was—and is.
A self-effacing giant.
A wit who rarely laughed.
A man who loved so deeply and completely that he seemed, sometimes, not to have loved at all."—Jerome Laurence, Robert E. Lee.

One of the more traumatic moments in the performance.

"Oh, David Henry! Are you riling everybody up again?"

Thoreau's philosophy baffles the town.

Vince DiGiosafati: Director and Producer of CHS's Production of THE NIGHT THOREAU SPENT IN JAIL.

Henry shocks the townspeople by breaking the Sabbath.

"That's Transcendentalism?"

Thanks to dedication and hard work, the cast and crew really made the show sparkle.—Cindy Hahn

When it was all over, the show was really worth all the hard work.—Michael Gundy

We felt that it was a tremendous, artistic achievement resulting from the cooperative efforts of a very talented cast, and an untiring, devoted stage crew.—Vince, Mr. Aitken, Mr. Hardy Follies fun for all!

Now you may think this song is meant to offend all you students with whom we contend;
But you'll get your just due if you just listen through and see that we're mocking us too.
'Cuz you guys ain't all who travel these halls; we too feel like climbin' the walls!
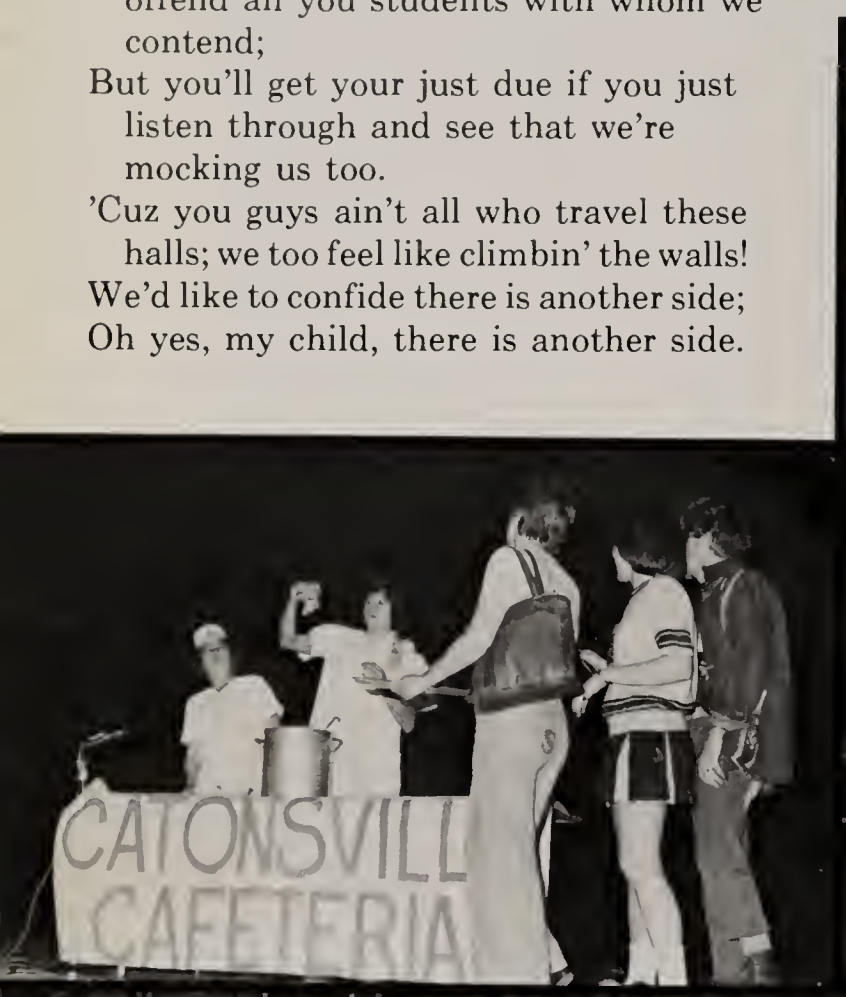
We'd like to confide there is another side;
Oh yes, my child, there is another side.



A starry, starry night

It was a starry, starry night at CHS on December 11, 1976. Everyone was in the Christmas spirit. The band, PEN LUCY, played a variety of music and prepared everyone who attended for an evening of fun.

We had a great time, my dress didn't rip, and we really liked the 50's music.—Patti Moss

It was just great.—Shiro

PEN LUCY was out-of-sight.

Winter Sun shines on October 8 was a night that many juniors will remember. They turned their rings to the music of WINTER SUN. This year the juniors had the opportunity to select from two types of rings: traditional style and military. Those who attended felt the dance was a success.

The band was really good—C.O.

It was alright—A.S.

We had a real good time.

Stars are born

"Can we move yet, Michael?"

"Now, for the moment we've all been waiting for!"

"Good job, well done. I was gratified to see that the audience for the FIRST time was mixed."—Mr. Montgomery

Coming and living in the U.S. has been the greatest experience in my life. I loved every moment of it—thanks to my wonderful American family, school, and new friends. Living in such a beautiful country with beautiful people is tremendous. It has been fantastic meeting others from all over the world and getting to know them. Thank you AFS, Thank you America—for making '77 a happy year for me.—Shiro Pinidiya.

AFS is unique. I never realized how little I knew about the people of the world. This year has brought me closer to a different lifestyle and culture. The friendships that have grown will be everlasting.—Regina Parkison

It is hard to conceive that a year can pass by so quickly. When thinking of everything . . . it seems to me like a year of real, intense living. AFS was a beginning. A beginning to learn about myself, others, and to find out about a new family life. Where ever I go, where ever I live, I'll always remember my AFS experience in a nice town, Catonsville!—Bilge Mutluay.

COMETS kick off a winning season

COMETS' football was very successful, with J.V. finishing first in their division, losing only to Kenwood. Varsity also finished high in their division. Next year a strong Varsity team is expected. We finally put together a good season; it was great!—Woody We had a good year with many juniors on the team. Because of a strong J.V., we're expecting a good year next year.—Tom Rossberg We won the division on a good passing game and a lot of team effort and spirit.—Joe Corbitt

COMETS kick up a storm

Even though the COMETS' soccer team wasn't successful this season, next year should be more promising with many returning players.

I felt the team was well balanced and played well together, even though our record did not show it.—Tom Fowler

I felt our team could have done better this year, but it is building and should do better in the future.—Steve McCloskey

The team improved greatly this year and also had a good time. I think I probably had the best time of all.—Pat Cohill

The team accomplished all that I expected, with the only downfall being the loss to Pikesville.—Coach Wagner

Triumph despite tragedy

Catonsville fans retained their loyalty to a championship team, despite a disappointing turn of events at the end of the season. The basketball team feels that we had a good season. It was tragic at the peak of our season, but we know we are Number One. The team also wants to thank the many fans who attended all of our games.—Rodney Jackson

The Jayvee team had a lot of fun this year, and I learned a lot that will be helpful to me next year.—Jerry Jones

I thought the team had a successful season and had a good chance to go to the State Championship. However, the season went on to end with a tragic event.—Robert Rheubottom, Malcolm Lynch

COMETTES capture third

I had a great time playing this season and was honored to be one of the captains of the squad. Thank you officials?—Alice White

We had a good team and a good coach. With only two seniors leaving the team, next year ought to be a great season.—Cindy Hughes

If it wasn't for rowdy Pam we'd really have a quiet team.

Hey Judy, let's go camping!

Watching Julie run like a woodpecker was fun.—Jeanne Marzal

The attitude of the JV players was terrible this year, but I'm looking forward to next season.—Sue Scott

I couldn't have asked for a better group of players. We had a winning season because we worked "together". With only two graduating seniors, we are looking forward to the county championship next year.—Randi Manfredi

Beware to you who seem
To have faith in the American Dream.
You'll never achieve
What you used to believe,
So states Grade Eleven's main theme.

For you who believe in T's thesis,
Your dream will be shattered to pieces.
Through Grapes and The Jungle
And Gatsby you bungle
As cynicism daily increases.

Despite all of Miss T's teaching
And the authors' incessant preaching,
We'll continue to strive
To do more than "survive"
For the American Dream we're still reaching!

MISS T'S THIRD PERIOD OPTIMISTS

In a room boldly numbered 310,
Farrah Fawcett in the closet is penned.
The teacher is lean,
Like Idi Amin.
And please, no more films, Mr. M.

Freezer Orders — Party Trays

1701 Edmondson Ave. — Catonsville, Md. 21228 — 788-2369

Gin, Colt, wine, and Mick,
Drink them all and you'll get sick.
Every weekend it is the same,
Partying is our life and we're to blame.
Parties were invented to be a pleasure,
But the purpose has changed by a very great measure.
Getting loaded has been labeled "cool",
Who in the heck are we trying to fool???
We mask ourselves by an unnatural high,
—Playing this game is a hypocritic lie.
The next time you're taking a tote,
Remember that you're actually sinking the boat.
Go ahead, and laugh at this—if you will,
But it is YOU that you will KILL!

There once was a teacher, Miss T,
Who had never once given an E.
But this is a warning to you
After period two,
You're lucky if you get away with a D.

JD for JP—take it easy over the summer
The green grass sprouted,
And little red flowers blossomed.
The pine tree pointed his finger to the sky,
And the oak spread out his arms.
The lakes cuddled down in the hollows of the ground,
And the rivers ran down to the sea,
And God smiled again.
Then God raised his arm and he waved his hand
And quicker than he could drop it,
Fish and fowls
And beasts and birds
Swam the rivers and the seas,
Roamed the forests and the woods,
And split the air with their wings;
And God said: "That's good!"
